

PAUSE FOR THE CAUSE

In the 21st century, we find ourselves living in a (social) media-driven world. Rewards are offered to those with the knowledge and ability, to utilize the opportunities technology provides. Pause For The Cause has emerged out of the mainstream to walk their own path and create their own opportunities. The band is doing the diligent work that originated the term, "being in the right place at the right time."

Pause For The Cause is a Boise, Idaho-based group consisting of three members: Steve Cash on guitar, Darcy Erickson on bass, Brandon Jenkins on drums. Formed in late 2011, the power trio create a dynamic mix of rock, hip-hop, reggae, pop music, and vocal harmonies performed with immaculate precision. Life-changing entertainers come around once in a lifetime, and it is only a matter of time until Pause For The Cause becomes a national sensation. By combining a shared reggae backbone with influences such as hip-hop, alternative rock, and punk, Pause For The Cause immediately began winning the hearts, ears, and support of people all over Boise, and they hope to convey their message of love, inspiration, and peace to the national masses. Searching intently to tear a page out of history and affect the future, Pause For The Cause is busy touring the US, writing new music daily, and creating video content for their Youtube channel.

Pause For The Cause are three musicians, sharing the music they love to play with the people who love to hear it. Go to the band's social media sites and follow them!
